To wit

Be it remembered that a District Court of the United States for the District of Massachusetts, begun & holden at Boston within & for the District of Massachusetts on the first Tuesday of December in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty two & continued by adjournments to the eighteenth day of January in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty three comes into Court on the said eighteenth day of January Andrew Dunlap Esq. Attorney of the United States for the District of Massachusetts & in the name & behalf of the United States prosecutes & gives said Court to understand & be informed that Melvin Lord of Boston in the said District Bookseller did on the first day of January in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty two at Boston aforesaid with force & arms print & publish a certain book entitled "The Farmer's Almanack, calculated on a new & improved plan. For the year of Our Lord 1832." the said Lord then & there not having acquired the Copy right thereof & did then & there falsely insert & imprint in said book that the same had been "entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1831 by Richardson Lord & Holbrook, in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Massachusetts." against the law, peace & dignity of the United States & contrary to the form of the statute of the United States in such case made & provided by reason whereof & by the force of the said statute the said Melvin Lord has forfeited & become liable to pay the sum of one hundred dollars; one moity thereof to the person prosecuting for the same & the other to the use of the United States. And the said Attorney of the United States gives the said Court to understand & be informed that the United States by their said Attorney do first prosecute for the same. Wherefore the said Attorney prays advisement of the Court here in the premises & for the proper process to the end that the said penalty or forfeiture may be recovered by the said United States of him the said Lord
